Royal Insurance Company.

FIRE AND LIFE.

CAPITAL TWO MILLIONS STERLING.

This important company, in many respects the greatest of its kind in the present age, has appointed an agency in this city. The head-offices are in London and Liverpool with branches in Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Manchester, Bristol, Birmingham, Sheffield, Leeds, Newcastle, Southampton, Montreal, Toronto and other cities.

The ROYAL is remarkable; for the promptitude and liberality of its settlements: for the largest life bonuses (£2 per cent per annum) over continuously declared during 15 years by any Co.; for the enormous extent of its transactions, showing £'00,000 in new life assurances for 1862, and a Fire revenue of £300,000 per annum; for its security, which has given rise to the proverb "as safe as the Royal;" for the accumulated funds in hand, over one million sterling; for its annual income, over half-a-million sterling; and for the correct calculation of its mortality tables. Hence the English press of all countries, including over 90 leading papers, speaks in the highest terms of this company.

The report for 1862 shews that "all the property of the Co. amounting to £846,070 is real and substantial property:" the amount now exceeds one million sterling. The increase, during 14 years, on Fire business was 900 per cent, and on Life 1350 per cent.

MESSRS. H. A. GREEN AND Co, are authorised to issue policies for Fire and Life to a very large amount, at moderate premiums, the Co. being anxious to extend its foreign business, which already shews an annual revenue of £300,000. Life claims can be settled without reference to England. For further particulars please apply to

BENSON'S WATCHES AND CLOCKS.

Watch and Clock Maker, by Special Appointment, to His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales.

Opinions of the London Press upon Benson's Great Clock and Watches in the Exhibition, 1862.

"As a sample of English clock work on a large scale, the works of this are probably the finest finished that have ever been seen in this country. No Chronometer could be fitted with more perfectness or carefully adjusted mechanism."—Times, June 11 1862.

"A triumph of ingenuity."—Telegraph March 11 1862.

"A more splendid and exquisitely finished piece of mechanism we have seldom seen." Standard, June 17 1862.

"Some of them are of great beauty and if the English watch-trade only follow up with the same spirit and success this first attempt to compete with foreigners in decorative watches, there seems to be no reason why we should not get the trade entirely into our own hands."—Times, June 23, 1862.

"Ranged around the base of the clock were the Watches which Mr. Benson exhibited, and which have been universally admired for the beauty and elegance of the designs engraved upon them. The movements are of the finest quality which the art of, horology is at present capable of producing. The clock and watches were objects of great attraction, and well repaid the trouble of an inspection."—Illustrated London News, November 8, 1862.

London, Sept. 9, 1864.

The Bank Directors yesterday advanced the rate of discount from 8 to 9 per cent., a movement which, from not being anticipated, adversely affected the stock markets. Consols finally closed at 87⅜ to ⅞. The Bank return shows the stock of bullion to be 12,790,447*l.*, being 9,586., less than last week.

The adjourned inquest on the murdered Mr. Briggs was resumed yesterday, and immediately again adjourned until the witnesses, now doubtless on their voyage from New York with the accused, shall have arrived in London.

It will be remembered that about a year ago a foreigner named Sigmund Dietrichsen left this country under the imputation that he had defrauded certain brokers in the City of nearly 10,000. A warrant of his apprehension was procured, and he was followed to Hungary, where he was arrested. The Austrian Government, in the absence of an extradition treaty with this country, declined to allow him to be brought to England. Under the Austrian law, however, the charge against him was gone into, and after long delays the courts in that country decided that the case could not be proved, and he was discharged. He subsequently wrote to the brokers in London whom it was said he had defrauded, and declared that he had been the victim in the affair. He offered to assist them to get back some of the money which they had lost, and it is said through his aid about 6,000*l.* has been obtained. He came to this country, and was yesterday brought up at the Mansion House Police court. Mr. Sleigh, for the prosecution, however, stated that after what had taken place in Austria, he did not think there could be a conviction and suggested that Dietrichsen should be discharged. Mr. George, for the prisoner, said a few words denying that he had had any guilty intention, after which he was discharged.

The inquest on the bodies of the men who were killed by a landslip on the railway near Lewisham was brought to a close yesterday. The jury found a verdict of accidental death, adding an expression of regret that no look-out for danger had been kept.

A frightful colliery explosion took place on Wednesday night near North Shields. The pit in which the explosion took place is called the Seghill Colliery. Eighteen men and lads were at work in a part of the pit known as the Far California Bank, when suddenly the gas fired, and in a moment they were all killed. Fortunately the explosion did not extend to other parts of the pit, where a large number of men were at work. Up to the time of our parcel leaving last evening the bodies had not been recovered, but every exertion was being made to get at them.

The probability of M'Clellan's nomination for next President at Chicago sent down the price of gold from 253⅞ to 250⅝ in a day.

On the South Eastern Railway at Ramsgate on Wednesday night an unfortunate man, Snelling by name, was accidentally run over by a locomotive and killed.

A very melancholy case came before the coroner for East Surrey on Wednesday. A retired solicitor, named Edward Villiers Crotty, was found dying in Battersea Park with a cup which had contained poison at his side. On the inquest it appeared that the deceased gentleman had run through a very large fortune, which he lost by betting on the turf. His family was reduced almost to destitution, and to get free from his difficulties he took poison.

A brilliant public festival, in which the authorities joined, had taken place in Naples to celebrate the anniversary of Garibaldi's entry into the city, and the expulsion of King Francis. There is a rumour afloat to the effect that Austria has at last made up her mind to recognise the kingdom of Italy, but we do not know on what grounds the report is founded.

The semi-official 'Provinzial Correspondenz' of Berlin states that the commercial negotiations with Austria will probably open next week, and affirms that Prussia will not, under any circumstanstances, abandon the position she has acquired by the treaty of commerce with France and the newly established Zollverein upon the basis of that treaty. This is in accordance with the assurances which were made the other day by some of the newspapers of Paris.

Deputations from the north of Schleswig have arrived in Copenhagen bearing with them addresses to King Christian, supplicating protection for their national rights. Poor King Christian, however, is little blessed with the power which dispenses protection of any kind. To maintain the bare existence of Denmark proper as an independent kingdom will sufficiently tax his strength and resources. The Czarewitch has left Denmark. He was accompanied to Elsinore by the Danish Crown Prince.

The decree appointing Marshal MacMahon Governor-General of Algeria appears in yesterday's 'Moniteur.' General Martimprey, who held the office ad interim after the death of Marshal Pelissier, has been raised to the rank of Senator.

The Empress Eugenie's sudden journey to Nassau has not failed to create surprise and conjecture. It appears, however, to be merely an excursion made for health's sake.

Muller, the supposed murderer of Mr. Briggs had been captured. The Victoria, in which he was a passsenger, arrived at New York on the evening of Wednesday, the 24th August. The police immediately sought and found Muller, who had with him the hat and watch of Mr. Briggs. He strongly protested his innocence of the charge on which he was arrested, but of course without avail. He was retained in custody, and the steps necessary for his extradition were being taken when the steamer now arrived at Greenock left New York.

The Duke of Cleveland died yesterday afternoon at Raby Castle. His grace only succeeded to the dukedom a few months ago on the death of his brother.

The great rowing match on the Tyne between Chambers and Cooper was decided last eveing. Cooper went off with a slight lead, but was passed in a few strokes by Chambers, who rapidly drew ahead and won the race easily by two hundred yards.

By an arrival we have intelligence from New York to the evening of the 27th ult.

Grant still holds his important position on the Weldon Railway; and there is no other war news except that the Confederates had sunk a vessel in the harbour of Mobile, which renders access to the city impossible until it be removed.

A telegram from Suez, in advance of the Calcutta, China and Australian mails, brings news of a defeat of the Maories. They were attacked on the 25th June, and defeated with a loss of 200 men. The chief who commanded at Gate Pah was among the killed.

From Shanghai we hear that the city of Cang-Sing had been captured. A camp instruction had been formed under Colonel Gordon to train the Chinese troops.

According to a telegram from Copenhagen the Prince and Princess of Wales, travelling under the title of Baron and Baroness Renfrew, arrived at Elsinore yesterday. They were received with great rejoicings.

A new series of hitherto unpublished documents was laid before the Danish Rigsraad prior to its prolongation. These documents relate to the negotiations which were in progress during the autumn and winter of last year between the Governments of Denmark and Sweden for an alliance to defend the former Power against the German invasion of Schleswig. They will be found of much interest in many passages as showing the nature of the hopes and promises on which Denmark relied, and how near at one time she seemed to approach to their realisation.

The Emperor of the French yesterday received MM. Rouher, Drouyn de l'Huys, and Boudet. A Ministerial Council is to be held to-day. The Empress was to have left last evening for Schwalbach, in Nassau, where it is expected that she will remain for a month. The Paris evening papers announce that a new Franco-Annamite treaty has been signed, allowing the establishment of a French protectorate in six provinces of Lower Cochin-China, the opening of three important ports on the Annam coast, entire liberty to French missionaries to propagate the Christian religion throughout the whole kingdom, and the establishment of consular agents at the ports opened to commerce.

Tranquillity is stated to have been partially restored in Geneva. No further arrests have been made. Public opinion throughout Switzerland is said to condemn very generally the proceedings of M. Fazy: A letter from Geneva announces the death of Ferdinand Lassalle, the distinguished social agitator so popular among the working classes of Germany. Lassalle was killed in a duel by a Moldo-Wallachian.

The Mexican Envoy has been received by the Federal Council of Switzerland.

The Prince and Princess of Wales sailed from Dundee on Saturday afternoon for Copenhagen. Great preparations had been made for their reception and for the conducting of them through the town. Almost at the last moment a telegraph was received stating that the Royal party would embark at Broughty Ferry, four miles from Dundee. Instantly a special train conveyed magistrates to the Ferry, who represented to the Prince that if faith were not kept with the people there would, in all likelihood, be a riot in the town. His Royal Highness at once consented to proceed and embark according to the first arrangement. This was done, but when the royal party reached the landing-place it was found that the Royal yacht had not returned from Broughty Ferry, whither she had been ordered. Thus there was an awkward period of waiting, during which heavy rain began to fall. At last, however, the yacht came up, and the Prince and Princess, with their suite, were safely conveyed on board, the yacht with her consorts sailing immediately.

The statue of Sir George Cornewall Lewis which has been erected at Hereford was unveiled by Lord Palmerston on Saturday. His Lordship pronounced a high eulogium on the character of the deceased statesman, and held his career up as a lesson for the young men of the present day. The statue is by Baron Marochetti, and is said to be of noble proportions and the most expressive in character.

The Danish Rigsraad as been closed with a short message from the King, which was read by the President of the Council. The King announced that if necessary he would convoke the Chambers for an extraordinary session. It is rumored that the Peace Conference is not likely to be resumed for some time, because of obstructions thrown in the way of any arrangement by the Danish negotiators. The latter, it is said, are extremely unwilling to agree to the financial settlement proposed, and even threaten to break off the negotiations and renew the war, declaring that Denmark could not lose more than she is likely to lose by accepting the terms. But this can hardly be true. The Danish plenipotentiaries could not dream of renewing a war in which Denmark must at least lose more blood, not to speak of more territory and treasure.

M. James Fazy has quitted Geneva strangely and suddenly. Being cited before the Judge d'Instruction, he published a statement in a newspaper to the effect that he had retired to the frontier to escape assassination and to await a period of reaction.

The Queen of Spain has received the Envoy of the Emperor of Mexico. In the speeches which were interchanged the utmost good feeling and mutual sympathy were of course expressed.

Owing to the circulation of some most mischievous but totally unfounded reports on the Stock Exchange yesterday Consols declined ¾ per cent., the final quotations being 87⅜ to ½. The depression extended to all the other markets, the result being a considerable decline. There was no particular feature in the money market, and upwards of 100,000*l.* were sent into the Bank.

Her majesty has expressed her warm approval of the arrangements at Perth for the inauguration of the Albert statue in that city. The Queen has also forwarded through Sir Charles Wood an answer to the address which was presented to her when the statue was inaugurated.

The Middlesex Sessions were opened yesterday. One of the prisoners tried was a Mr. Booth, formerly a magistrate of Bedfordshire. He was charged with having defrauded an hotel keeper by giving him a useless cheque in payment for an account. An objection was taken to the indictment by the counsel for the prisoner, and the judge held that it was fatal. A verdict of not guilty was then taken.

Some young men of the description termed "fast" have been bound over to keep the peace, as a consequence of their riotous larking at Highbury Barn. These wanton disturbances at places of public recreation are disgraceful.

A telegram from Copenhagen states that it is believed in that city that the betrothal of the Princess Dagmar, second daughter of King Christian, with the son of the Emperor of Russia will take place very soon.

It is rumoured in Paris that the object of the recent visit of the King of Spain was to take the opinion of the Emperor as to the propriety of allowing the Queen's cousin, Don Juan de Bourbon, to remain at Madrid. The Spanish Court, it is stated, are not unwilling at present to allow the son of Don Carlos to return to Spain, and are even of opinion that political advantage might be derived from his presence. The power of Don Juan to do harm to the reigning house appears to have diminished to almost infinitesimal proportions; but perhaps the Emperor Napoleon may think it unwise to be too confident in regard to the harmlessness of despised pretenders.

FRANCE.

Paris, Sept. 4.

The great event, that which at the present hour throws into the shade all other political news, is the attention paid by Louis Napoleon to Gen. Roon. The Emperor, whilst at the camp of Chalons, seemed particularly anxious to please this Prussian Minister. He had many private conversations with him, and has conferred on him the Grand Croix of the Legion d' Honneur. General Roon was commissioned by his Sovereign to express again to the Emperor his anxious wish to have an interview with him on the banks of the Rhine, in case the Imperial Court should accomplish their intended journey to Lorraine. I cannot say whether this will take place or not, but it is firmly believed that, owing to the great dissensions which have arisen between Austria and Prussia, France may be requested by Prussia to intervene and endeavor to settle the still complicated question of the Duchies. M. de Bismark, as you are aware, informed Earl Russell of the "good intentions" of the Prussian Government towards Denmark, which reminds one that there exists a certain locality said to be paved with the above article. The 'Memorial Diplomatique' states that Lord Russell's reply to this communication was couched in the most insulting terms. 'La France' comment on this fact, remarks that the tone adopted is quite in accordance with the noble lord's habits, who, they add, is more inclined to threaten than to act.

Negotiations are now going on between the Prussian and Nassau Governments as regards the new commercial treaty; Bavaria, the Grand Duchy of Hesse, and Wurtemberg, are now the only powers which have not as yet adhered to the re-organization of the Zollverein. It appears that the French Government is convinced that Austria has no better means of entering the Zollverein and keeping up the politico-commercial unity of the German Confederated States than in joining the Franco-Prussian commercial treaty.

The Emperor, who has returned to St. Cloud, is suffering from a fresh attack of rheumatism, which, however, will not prevent him from presiding over the Council of Ministers which will be held to-morrow. The young prince, it is said, is to enter next October the Lycée Bonaparte, and pursue the regular course of education at that college.

Hundreds of houses have been knocked down in order to allow of a magnificent square being made round the Chapelle Expiatoire built on the spot where the remains of Louis XVI. and Marie Antoinette were, in common with those of many other victims, thrown into a pit dug to receive them. The ground was secretly purchased in 1795 by a devoted adherent, Desclozeaux, who walled it in and gave it the appearance of a garden. At the restoration of the Bourbons search was made for the bodies of the King and Queen, which were discovered, placed in coffins, and conveyed by torchlight to St. Denis in great pomp.

The Princess-Dowager of Polignac died yesterday. This lady, born in 1792, was daughter of Lord Rancliffe, and married in 1824 Prince Jules de Polignac, son of Marie Antoinette's favorite but unpopular lady in waiting, and himself Charles X.'s ill-stared Minister. The heroic lady whose death I record shared her husband's ten years' imprisonment at Ham, where her daughter, the Duchess of Deaudanville Rochefoucault, was born, and whose early death was so widely deplored.

The copies of the bas-reliefs taken from Trajan's column at Rome have been bronzed by the galvano-plastic process, and were last week placed in the Galerie Napoleon III. of the Louvre. The gallery occupies the Rez de Chaussee to the left of the Pavillion Denon. They are arranged so that the column appears to have been divided into eight equal portions, each seven or eight yards in height. This has been done to enable students, artists, or archæologists to study those bas-reliefs in their historic as well as chronological order.

A curious autograph of Tasso was sold to-day, which gives an insight into the poet's early struggles:—"I, the undersigned, acknowledge to having received from Abraham Levy 25 livres, for which sum I have pledged a sword of my fathers, six shirts, and two silver spoons." The document bears the date of March 2, 1570, at which time Tasso was twenty-six.

New York, Aug. 27.

On Friday the 5th corps of Grant's army took up a position on the Weldon Railroad and tore up the track, but were surprised and driven back by the Confederates with the loss of 3,000 killed, wounded, and prisoners. The Federals were reinforced and recovered and maintained their lost ground. On Sunday the Confederates made a strong effort to drive Grant off, but were repulsed with considerable loss. A portion of Grant's force returned from the north side of James River, to reinforce the position on the Weldon Railway.

On Sunday an engagement occurred between Sheridan and Early, near Charlestown. There was considerable loss on both sides. Sheridan fell back to Halltown. Early is near Martinsburg. A considerable panic prevails among the inhabitants of the Maryland border on account of the anticipated invasion by Early.

Peace rumors continue.

The situation at Petersburg and Deep Bottom is unchanged.

The accounts from the Upper Potomac are conflicting, some stating that Early was repulsed in an attempt to cross the Potomac at Williamsport yesterday, while others assert that he has crun a considerable force into Maryland.

Nashville despatches of the 14th state that during a reconnoissance of the obstructions of Mobile Bay on the 14th, Admiral Farragut discovered that an iron-clad had been sunk directly in the channel, rendering approach to the city impossible.

The Confederate Colonel Dickson routed a body of Federal cavalry at Gainesville, Florida, on the 18th, capturing 150 prisoners and one cannon. He also rescued 100 negroes kidnapped by the Federals.

The Mississippi steamer Empress, from New Orleans, with 500 passengers, many of whom were women and children, was fired into at Gainesland-ing, midway between Vicksburg and Memphis, on the 10th, by a Confederate battery. Twenty persons were killed or wounded before the steamer got out of range.

The city of Changsing has been captured. A camp of instruction has been formed under Colonel Gordon, for the purpose of training the Chinese troops.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Captain Curlewis has brought us an abundant supply of news in the mails from Southampton of September 8th.

It is said that a steamer came into collision with a sailing vessel in the port of Montevideo, and carried off some of her boats, which were afterwards picked up.

Among the passengers arrived yesterday, besides our friend Mr. Paul and his lady, are some Irish gentlemen come out for sheep-farming, one of whom is Mr. O'Dwyer, brother-in-law to our late Consul in Dublin.

The projects for redemption of paper money have now all passed through the Provincial Chamber of Deputies, that respecting the Bank of the Province being sanctioned on Wednesday evening. It remains to be seen whether, as anticipated, the Senate will offer opposition to their being made law.

On Thursday the editors of the 'Nacion Argentina' were suddenly alarmed by the appearance of a man in their office, who was bleeding freely from five dagger-wounds. It seems the poor fellow was a distressed Swiss, who was unable to get employment and foolishly attempted to committed suicide.

Another vessel came into port yesterday with railway iron for Messrs. Peto & Betts; also the Porteña from Liverpool with, we believe, some emigrant passengers.

An English gentleman in Montevideo, of astronomical tastes, announces a partial eclipse of the sun, visible in the River Plate on Sunday, 30th inst., from 10.22 a.m. to 1.50 p.m. At Asuncion, in Paraguay, it will be central and annular.

The Brazil and River Plate Mail has a very flattering review of our Cotton-fields of Paraguay and Corrientes, which brochure has been also received with peculiar interest at Manchester.

The Amateur dramatic Club of Montevideo have sent cards of invitation to the Editors of the 'Standard,' for a grand performance to come off at Solis theatre on Wednesday evening next.

The Buenos Ayrean journals state that rioting continues in the North of Ireland, but we find nothing of the kind in the English papers. A passenger who left Dublin in the beginning of September states that the fighting is all over and Government had ordered an investigation into the apparently criminal conduct of the magistrates.

The Post-Office deserves a vote of thanks for its despatch yesterday in delivery of the letters. The mail was unusually heavy, having also some bags left by the Saintonge: the letters were delivered at 1 p.m.

So many persons called yesterday for Supplements that we could not send them round afterwards, without our camp subscribers coming short. Any person wanting them will please either send to the office, or ask the "repartidor" to bring them next day.

We had yesterday the pleasure of handing the English widow, Mrs. Zambianchi, the donation of $200 from an unknown friend. Any parties wishing to imitate the good example may send their donations to this office.

The "Nacional" states that among the passengers per Pavon were six Sisters of Charity en route for Jujuy. These heroines are extending their charitable labors to the remotest provinces of the interior.

The 'Tribuna' has a very suspicious remark about the Protestant missionaries in Patagonia, alluding to their political import. If our colleague suppose these reverend gentlemen to be agents of the British Government, we can assure him to be mistaken. Apropos, the curate of Patagones is come to solicit aid from Government to rebuild the church in that town. We hope President Mitre and Bishop Escalada will take some measures for civilizing the harmless aborigines, of whose miserable condition our friend 'Erin' gave a seemingly truthful report.

A charity sermon will be preached on Sunday next, the 16th instant, in the Irish Church, by the Rev. Mr. Dillon, in aid of the support of the poor children and orphans, who are under the care of the Sisters of Mercy. As this institution depends entirely on public charity for its existence, it is to be hoped that it will meet a generous support from the public in general. The sisters are obliged to refuse admission to many poor children to their house of mercy for want of means to support them. But they trust that this appeal to the public will procure them sufficient aid to extend their gratuitous and charitable pretection.

The 'Loughrea Illustrated Monthly Journal,' September 1st, extracts our notice of the elevation of Father Fahy to the dignity of Canon, in the Cathedral chapter of Buenos Ayres: there are also complimentary remarks to the friends and relatives of our venerable friend, who is a native of that town (Loughrea).

We have to thank the commander and purser of the Mersey for their kindness in sending us the European mails, our supplements, &c., at an early hour yesterday.

The second general meeting of the Buenos Ayrean Great Southern Railway was held in London on August 26th. An important report, from Mr. Parish, was read: we will give particulars to-morrow.

The second general meeting of the Northern Railway was held on the 30th, when a debate ensued about the new £100 Debentures. It is hoped (?) that Government will pay the guarantee not merely on the stipulated estimate of £150,000, but on the actual cost, £240,000 sterling.

This evening Captain Mancilla's new comedy, "My Aunt," will be given at the Victoria. We have received a critique, which we will publish to-morrow.

We regret to learn that a female pupil of the Scotch School, named Thompson, died rather suddenly yesterday.

THE FRANCO-ARGENTINE THEATRE.

Of late the Bouffes performances have become unusually popular, and drawn crowded houses every night. Certes, the esprit of Mme. Pauline, and versatility of the "inimitable D'hote," together with the varied talents of the rest of the company are sufficient to ensure a pleasant evening to all who frequent their theatre. But they have called in another element which attracts numbers of foreigners unable for the most part to appreciate the 'calembourgs' and bons-mots'; and on Thursday evening we noticed a number of Brazilians, Argentines and English among the spectators, many of whom were attracted by the matchless ballet Co. Monsieur, Mdme and Mdlle Escudero.

The vaudeville "Allumette entre deux feux" was very well played, and the songs given with taste by the three performers. The Spanish dance "So de Aragon" by Mr. and Mrs. Escudero was much applauded, and followed by a pas seul, or singing dance, by the pretty little daughter, Pauline and D'hote exerted all their talents in the amusing farce of the "Widow of Camelias," which is replete with droll incidents.

The performances concluded with the trio dance "La Sevillana," of which suffice it to say that it is characteristic of its name and exceedingly graceful.

The French theatre is a great acquisition in the way of public amusement, and we are glad to say it is so well patronised.

THE LATE HENRY BRUCE, ESQ.

We have the painful duty of announcing the death of this lamented gentleman, who has been suddenly carried off by an attack of bronchitis, in the enjoyment of otherwise excellent health. As chairman of the London, Buenos Ayres, and River Plate Bank, his loss will be severely felt, and his name has also been honourably connected with several other public companies. Few men have earned a more lasting reputation for integrity of purpose and indomitable perseverance, combined with much single-mindedness and amiability of manner, which endeared him to a large circle of friends.

The news by the packet had a serious effect on our specie market. Notwithstanding that the Bank Mauá received per packet one million two hundred thousand francs in English gold, patacons have a decided upward tendency, and but for the heavy amount of gold which the Mauá Bank received by the last two packets, it is difficult to say at what figure the paper dollar would be now.

It is currently rumored that several failures have taken place in England and Germany, but by private letters which we have seen and received, we are happy to say that any which have occurred were of the most insignificant standing.

Money has increased in value in Europe, owing to the Bank of England having raised the rate to 9 per cent.

In Rio Janeyro things are settling down, and with the exception of a few rotten concerns, every house is paying as usual, without being obliged to avail of the Government order.

Hides and tallow sell at remunerative prices, but wool, as a matter of course is reported to be looking downward. We publish a report of the New York wool market, which we call attention to, inasmuch as it shews that the Americans will buy this year the same as heretofore in our market. The European market reports we will publish to-morrow.

We regret to announce the demise of the chairman of the River Plate Bank; it is surmised that Mr. Holt will be his successor.

The only failure of importance which has occurred in Europe is that of D. F. Weber & Co. Hamburg, caused by imprudent speculations in Kerosene.

It was rumoured through town that 800 Brazilians had landed at Santa Lucia near Montevideo, and that Flores was close in to the city; a fight had already taken place and the Government troops are said to have fled back into town: we know not how exact this report may be.

GENERAL REMARKS ON THE NEW YORK WOOL MARKET.

Since my last circular there has been a large trade in domestic fleece and pulled wools at advanced prices. The buyers have been principally speculators, but some manufacturers have laid in large stocks, being persuaded that there is not much probability of a decline in prices. Late sales have been $1.05 (s.) to $1.15 (s.) per lb. for fleece wool, and as it is estimated that the most of the clip is already out of the hands of the farmers, there is not much doubt but that the manufacturers will have to pay higher prices before long. The draft for 500,000 men to take place on 5th September has made an active trade in wools suitable for army clothing, and all medium and coarse fleece wool has sold readily, and also large parcels of the various kinds of foreign wools of suitable grade. The low stock of coarse foreign wool suitable for carpets and blankets, has enabled importers to realise better prices than they could possibly do on finer desriptions, which have been quiet on account of the abundant supply of domestic wool at a comparatively cheaper price.

The wool trade is in a good position as regards supply and demand, and the stock of wool will all be required at perhaps higher prices than are now ruling. If gold should decline there will not be a corresponding fall in the prices of foreign wool and sales may rett more in gold the coming Fall and Winter than they do now. The high tariff has discouraged importations, and we may yet feel this in the shape of light stocks and higher prices. The manufacturing interests are prosperous and prices of goods are advancing and no stock of the manufactured article is accumulating. Many of the smaller manufacturers have light stocks of wool and must buy soon no matter what the price of wool may be. The larger manufacturing companies have purchased extensively of fleece wool in in the wool growing districts, and for this reason have not been in the market for foreign wools.

The importations of Cape Wool the present month sum up 4,009 bales.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE.

Sept. 5, 1864.

The English funds this afternoon have experienced a heavier fall than has been known on any single day for some years past. At the opening the quotation of Consols for delivery ranged between 88⅛ and 88¼, but the market was inherently weak, and a series of sales ultimately caused rapid decline to 87½, whence there was no recovery. The price, therefore, is now only 1 per cent. above the worst that was touched during the most disastrous moment of the panic of 1857. For the new account on the 11th of October the final transactions were at 88⅛. There was an active demand for discount both at the Bank and in the open market, the dealers manifesting increased caution owing to the fact of some of the speculators in the Stock Exchange making persistent efforts by the circulation of wholly unfounded reports to create a general fear of impending commercial failures. But the chief motive for the large additional sales is believed to have consisted in an impression that if an armistice should throw open the cotton ports of America the flood of cotton to be sent forward would create a sudden demand for remittances in payment that would veay seriously aggravate the existing pressure for money.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and will open a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo, from Nine a.m till Three p.m on Week Days, and on Sundays and Holidays from Ten a.m. to Twelve m., for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres, September 19, 1863.

A CURE TO BE HAD FOR A TRIFLE.
BY HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

Gout, Rheumatism, Enlargements and Stiff Joints.

A cure of these complaints is within the reach of the most humble, by fomenting the affected parts with warm salt and water, and rubbing in Holloway Ointment twice a day. Thousands have been cured who looked upon Gout and Rheumatism as incurable. The same treatment should be employed for the removal of chalk stones, and all painful enlargements or stiffness of the joints. In such cases the Pills should be taken according to the printed directions.

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, and Ulcerations of all kinds.

The cure of ulcers has won for Holloway's Ointment an imperishable reputation, as this healing Ointment will restore any case, however bad, to soundness. Many bad legs arise from imprudence, happening several years before and almost forgotten: if then there be any doubt as to the origin of the sores, the patient should read carefully what is written on secondary symptoms in the Book of Directions, as those sores never heal soundly until the system has undergone a thorough course of Holloway's Purifying Pills.

Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Diphtheria, and Bronchitis.

Any of the above ailments may be quickly cured if the Ointment be well and effectually rubbed into the neck and chest twice a day, leaving the parts constantly covered with a rag spread with the preparation; if this treatment be adopted promptly, in six hours it will effectually stop the most alarming symptoms. It must be evident that an outward application applied to the seat of the disorder must be more effectual than any that can be taken by the mouth. Holloway's Pills should be used according to the directions in order to subdue irritation, inflammation, or fever.

DROPSY.

This fearful disease often makes its appearance between the ages of forty and fifty, and might generally be prevented by attending regularly to the proper action of the liver and stomach; these organs, at this time of life, have a great tendency to derangements, when asthma, dropsy, or disease of the heart often sets in. The blood requires frequent elimination which no other medicines can so effectually perform as these purifying Pills, as they purge gently, and act immediately upon the liver and stomach, and thus remove all obstructions which at the turning point of life always occur. This dangerous period should be closely watched; two doses a week of about six Pills will ward off all dangerous diseases. But in all cases of dropsy the Ointment is a wonderful and sovereign remedy, and must be effectually rubbed twice a day into the suffering parts.

Youthful Indiscretion.

How many poor women suffer from the indiscretion of husbands, which results in bad legs, swellings, loss of health, and rheumatism—as they suppose, although it is nothing of the kind—but the effect of a certain disease taking hold of the system. No ordinary medicine can cure them, because the disease has sunk deep into their constitution. Children often have sores, and bad heads, which do not heal, for the reason that contamination occurres before their birth. Let all who may suffer from such causes have recourse to the purifying and healing properties of these wonderful Ointment and Pills, observing carefully what is said in the book of directions on Secondary Symptoms, which, if strictly followed, will effect any cure of the kind, but it will be a work of little time.

Both Ointment and Pills should be used in the following disorders:

Bad Legs	Chilblains	Fistulas	Sore-throats.
Bad Breasts	Chapped Hands	Gout	Skin-diseases
Burns	Corns (Soft)	Glandular Swellings	Scurvy
Bunions	Cancers	Lumbago	Sore-head

		Sore Nipples	Yaws
